CURRENT STATUS >>> LEARNING PLATFORM

The Young LEAD Learning Platform is now entering its final stage of development! This online space will serve as the central hub for all the materials we've created throughout the project, bringing together tools for both teachers and students in one easily accessible place.

WHAT'S NEXT?

We're now pilot testing the Learning Platform with real users and deliver train-the-trainer webinars to introduce teachers to the tools, gather feedback, and explore how to apply them in classroom settings. This stage will help us refine the platform and strengthen collaboration across schools.
